

Does your church need a facelift?

We don't mean do you need to redecorate your building.

We mean...are you ready to have a visit from a dynamic evangelist that will inspire and motivate the servants of your church?

Pastor Marcia McAllister is a great choice. Her love of Christ and way of sharing in the community will leave everyone on fire for Jesus.

She is a Pastor, evangelist, author and radio personality.

Go to the websites to learn more about Pastor Marcia and her ministries. New works and independent churches are her specialty.
